

Varsity Golf

Coach Finger commented that "the golf team should be in the top ten in the U. S. The material is there, but in Winter and Autumn Quarters they had to study hard. Now they have more time and they should improve quickly." In the AAWU Conference the Indians are rated 2nd, and they look forward to a good season.

The camera shook from the blast of this Anderson drive off the 1st tee for 330 yards.

Well, here it is Spring again, and here we are digging grubs. Pictured are Coach Bud Finger, Greg Pitzer, Loy Martin, Rich Harris, Terry Curran, and Leith Anderson.

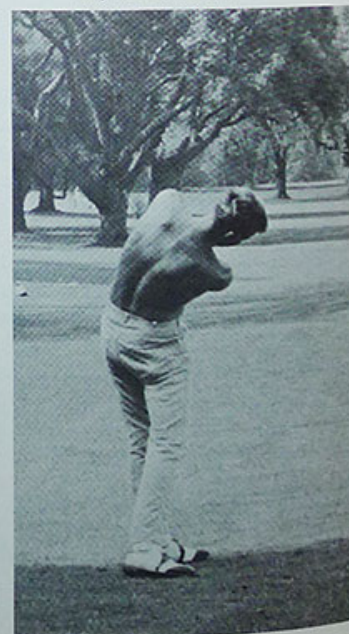

Greg Picard demonstrates excellent form from the 1st tee.

John Bottomley directs the way to the woods.

Varsity Captain Loy Martin practices chipping.

176

Leith Anderson sails a three iron on Stanford's 5th hole.

VARSITY GOLF TEAM — Row One: Greg Picard, Jay Friedrichs, Jim Stark, Coach Bud Finger. Row Two: Bob Bouchier, Walt Driver, John Bottomley, Captain Loy Martin, Terry Curran, Leith Anderson, Rich Harris.

FRESHMAN GOLF TEAM — Row One: George Bevan, Captain Greg Pitzer, Sandy Adelman. Row Two: Coach Bud Finger, Manager Bob Lawhon, Joe Connolly, Van Salmans, Bob Riddell.

"That'll teach you not to slice," says Adelman's shoe to Pitzer's driver.

Sandy Adelman shows Frosh Captain Greg Pitzer proper care of his driver.

Freshman Golf

Coach Finger rated the Freshman team "as one that shouldn't lose any matches." Sandy Adelman is very good on short courses, and Capt. Greg Pitzer, Bob Riddell, George Bevan, and Joe Connolly make one of the best teams in the country.